Introductions

- Name
- Building
- One improvement you'd love to see in Century Village this year

What Is the BOSS Brigade?

- Boards and Owners for SucceSS
- A community-driven club for Century Village
- Focused on education, transparency, communication, collaboration, and empowerment
- A space for boards and owners to learn, share, and grow together

Purpose of Today's Meeting

- Define our organizational goals
- Craft our vision statement
- Create our mission statement
- Identify our core values
- Build a shared foundation for the year ahead

Understanding the BOSS Brigade

Boards and Owners for SucceSS

Why This Matters

- Clear goals strengthen decision-making
- Shared vision unites efforts
- The mission guides our actions
- Values shape our expectations
- Strong foundations create strong communities

Vision Visualization

- Imagine it's 2030 and Century Village is thriving.
- Boards are effective.
- Owners are informed.
- The community feels united.
- What do you see?

Mission Statement: Guiding Questions

- Who do we serve?
- What do we provide?
- How do we create impact?
- What values guide our work?
- What makes our approach unique?

Mission Statement- Template

- “We support ____ by providing ____ so that ____.”
- A mission should be clear, actionable, and easy to understand.

Identify Our Core Values: Guiding Questions

- What principles guide every decision we make?
- What behaviors do we expect from ourselves and each other?
- What values are non-negotiable?
- Examples: Transparency • Respect • Collaboration • Accountability • Innovation

Drafting Our Statements Review themes from discussion

- Draft:
- 3–5 organizational goals
- One vision statement
- One mission statement
- 4–6 core values
- This is our first draft — we will refine it together.
